

Press Release

XX June 2015

Algebris Expanding Global Equities Team; Hires Simon Peters as PM for Europe and EMEA

London, United Kingdom (June XX, 2015): Algebris Investments a leading global asset management firm has named Simon Peters as PM for Europe and EMEA. He will be based in London, reporting directly to Algebris' Founding Partner and CEO, Davide Serra.

Mr. Peters will work closely with Mr Serra and the senior team on overseeing the equity funds. In addition, he will assume portfolio management responsibilities as part of his new role and build out the existing global equities offerings.

Algebris equity offerings span a range of strategies, including Long Only and Long/Short Global Financials and a mixed allocation Income fund investing in subordinated financial credit and high yielding financial equities globally.

Mr Serra said; "Simon will ensure continuity, inject fresh energy and play a pivotal role in the development of our flagship and new funds. He is a highly regarded global economic expert who will bring tremendous insights and make significant contributions to our investment process".

Mr Peters said "I look forward to becoming a member of the firm's portfolio management team, which is one of the deepest in the investment management industry." Mr. Peters continued: "This new role provides me a unique opportunity to contribute to existing success and to drive forward the firm's investment management solutions".

Additionally, Massimo Massimilla, current European Equity Analyst, will move to the firm's Milan office. As a longstanding senior member of the firm's portfolio management team, he has been named Chief Executive Officer of Algebris Italy, assuming additional responsibilities as we expand our Private Equity offerings focused on NPL in the real estate sector and a new vehicle focused on growth and capital SME's across Italy.

Said Mr Serra : "Massimo has been with us since inception of our firm in 2006 and instrumental in establishing and leading Algebris' portfolio management in our London office. We are grateful for his tremendous efforts with our London team over the last nine years. We look forward to continuing to see him grow our company in his new role".

-ENDS-

Biographies

Simon Peters

Simon has more than 15 years' experience in senior private banking and asset management roles. Before joining Algebris, Mr. Peters was a global financials PM/analyst at Pimco, prior to that head of financial specialist sales at Nomura in London. Previously, he was director of financials and fund manager at Henderson/Gartmore, on the firm's global financial fund, managing a team of analysts. He has also held roles in financials portfolio management and equity research analysis with the Government of Singapore Investment Corp. and BNP. Mr. Peters is a CFA Charterholder, ACA and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics (Honours) from the University of Exeter, U.K.

Massimo Massimilla

Massimo has been with Algebris since inception in Summer 2006 and is responsible for investments in Latin America, Turkey, France and Southern Europe. Prior to Algebris, Massimo worked in corporate finance at Goldman Sachs and Morgan Stanley, focusing on the European financial sector. Massimo is a graduate cum laude from Bocconi University in Milan. He is native Italian speaker and also fluent in Portuguese, French and English.

Notes to Editors

About Algebris

Algebris Investments is a leading asset management firm specialising in the global financial sector. The firm invests across the capital structure of financial institutions in both equity and credit. Algebris manages both long only and hedged strategies across a number of funds. Founded by CEO Davide Serra in 2006, Algebris is a recognised leader in financial equity and credit. It has global offices in London, Singapore, Milan and Boston and is affiliated with The Children's Investment Fund (TCI). Today the firm manages approximately $2.4 billion of assets across various projects and offerings. Algebris is regulated by the FSA, SEC and Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS).

For further information, please contact:

Sarah Finley, Investor Relations Associate, +44 (0) 207 851 1753 or +44 (0) 7825 944 546

For more information visit www.algebris.com