

ALGEBRIS (UK) LIMITED APPOINTS SIR JON CUNLIFFE AS CHAIR

London, 5 January 2026

Algebris (UK) Limited announces the appointment of Sir Jon Cunliffe as non-executive director and Chair following approval by the FCA, effective 1st January 2026.

Sir Jon brings significant experience in senior public service and financial policy at the Bank of England, as well as deep expertise in governance and oversight within the UK financial system. He will work closely with the Board and Executive team to support the Firm's UK strategy and the long-term growth of the Algebris Investments Group.

Davide Serra, Founder and CEO of Algebris Investments, commented: "Sir Jon's appointment further strengthens our governance framework and Board leadership. We are delighted to welcome him and look forward to working together to support Algebris' continued growth and long-term value creation."

Alex Lasagna, Deputy CEO of Algebris Investments, added: "Growing our presence in the UK is a strategic priority for Algebris. Sir Jon's experience and knowledge of this market will prove invaluable as we continue to develop our offering for UK clients and strengthen our position in the region."

Commenting on his appointment, Sir Jon Cunliffe said: "I am very pleased to be joining Algebris Investments, and I look forward to working with the Board and the team to support the business on the next stage of its journey and in delivering the best value for its investors."

Sir Jon Cunliffe Biography

Sir Jon Cunliffe was the Deputy Governor of the Bank of England with responsibility for Financial Stability from 2013 to 2023 and sat on the Bank's Court of Directors, the Financial Policy Committee, the Monetary Policy Committee and the Board of the Prudential Regulation Authority.

Before joining the Bank, Jon was the UK Permanent Representative to the European Union, effective from January 2012. From July 2007 to December 2011, he was the Prime Minister's Advisor on Europe and Global Issues and the UK Sherpa for the G8 and G20 and the Cabinet Office Permanent Secretary responsible for EU coordination. Between 2002 and 2007, Jon was Second Permanent Secretary at HM Treasury, Managing Director of the Macroeconomic and International Finance Directorate.

Jon was appointed a Companion of the Order of the Bath in the New Year Honours 2001, and made a Knight Bachelor in the New Year Honours 2010.

Algebris Investments

Algebris Investments is an independent global asset manager, founded by Davide Serra in 2006. Financials have been at the core of its expertise since inception, spanning across credit, equity and private debt. Over the years, the firm has widened its capabilities to global credit and global equity, including Italian equity. On the private investments side, the firm supports the transition to a greener and more sustainable economy, via its private equity solutions. As a specialist asset manager, Algebris' focused and thematic approach has been the cornerstone of its strategies. As of 30 November 2025, Algebris manages approximately €34 billion in assets, with a global team of over 175 professionals across offices in London, Milan, Rome, Zurich, Dublin, Boston, Singapore, and Tokyo.

For further information, please contact:

algebris@h-advisors.global